

Nagoya University presents Tango.

Argentine tango accomplished dancers invited as the key speakers of the conference, who will highlight their view on how it feels. Accompanied by Professor Hideto Nishimura, renowned latin american music researcher and sociologist. After conference Show.

タンゴ

Nagoya University

The Feeling of Tango

Thursday, January 21, 2010 – 18:00-19:30

Conference & Show

- History of music and dance
- The milonga
- Dance styles
- Current milongueros-Masters
- The changes that occurred lately

Cost: Free

Venue: Toyota Auditorium – Symposium Hall, Nagoya University

Registration: 17:30

Conference opening: 18:00

The conference is bilingual Spanish & Japanese

NISHIMURA Hideto

にしむら ひでと
西村秀人

Associate Professor, Graduate School of International Development, Nagoya University

Areas of Specialization • Latin American Studies • Popular Music Studies • Sociology

ZAVALA Alejandra Sonia

サバラ
アレハンドラ ソニア

- Dancer formed in classic, jazz, contemporary and tango dance
- Tango Championship finalist in the city of Buenos Aires – year 2007
- Formed in urquiza tango style by Carlos y Rosa Perez, Natalia Hills and Carlos Coppello

VILTE Carlos Leonardo

ヴィルテ
カルロス レオナルド

- Cultural Ambassador for the province of Salta-Argentina in Japan
- Tango SubChampionship finalist for the north of Argentina – year 2009
- Formed in urquiza tango style by Carlos y Rosa Perez and Fabian Peralta

* They are Tango Teachers in Destino Tango Nagoya – www.destinotango.com

For further information, please contact:

tanaka@ecis.nagoya-u.ac.jp, ECIS, Nagoya University

Furo-cho, Chikusa-ku, Nagoya, 464-8601, Japan TEL:+81-(0)52-789-5404

Organized by Education Center for International Students/ & Dept. of International Communication, GSID

ARGENTINE TANGO